

Presse / 2011 / "Stromberg - the film": Fans invest over 600,000 euros in seven days!

December 21st 2011 | The project "Stromberg - the film" was launched last Thursday December 15th 2011 and it already has the support of more than 2,000 investors, with a total deposit of over 600,000 euros. Through their commitment, fans have already purchased more than half of the available shares to the total value of 1 million euros.

December 21st 2011 | The project "Stromberg - the film" was launched last Thursday December 15th 2011 and it already has the support of more than 2,000 investors, with a total deposit of over 600,000 euros. Through their commitment, fans have already purchased more than half of the available shares to the total value of 1 million euros.

Ralf Husmann (BRAINPOOL, Stromberg producer): "The first seven days were terrific! That's what God must have said when He had created the Earth, and it's what we say about the "Stromberg - the film" campaign! Thank you to everyone who has supported us so far! We hope for continued success with God, the Earth and the campaign!"

By investing in the film's release at the cinema, investors receive great added value. This includes access to the investors lounge with regular updates to the state of production and exclusive background reports, as well as a personal investor's certificate. In addition to this, depending on number of shares purchased, the investors' names will appear in the end credits and they will be given exclusive access to the cinema premiere.

Potential investors still have time to purchase shares to the value of 1 million euros. If this sum is reached by the deadline, the film's production will begin at the end of 2012, and it is planned to be released at the cinema in the spring of 2013.

For more information about the project, investment and the film, visit www.Stromberg-Der-Film.de.

© 2020 BRAINPOOL TV GmbH - Impressum - Datenschutz

